

Terry Hannan

April 4, 2025

Terry Hannan, 60, passed away on April 4, 2025, in Darlington, South Carolina. Born on January 16, 1965, in Houlton, Maine, Terry lived a life defined by a deep love for his family.

For 47 years, Terry built a respected career in forestry agriculture, working across the Eastern Seaboard from his native Maine to his later home in South Carolina. His commitment to the land and the people who depended on it was unwavering. Through nearly five decades of service in the field, he earned the respect of colleagues and communities alike.

Terry's greatest joy came not from accolades or accomplishments but from time spent with those he loved most. He was a devoted husband to his wife, Betsy, and a proud father to his daughters Ericka and Nicole. He welcomed their husbands, Todd and William, into the family with warmth and generosity. Nothing brought him more happiness than being "Papa" to his grandchildren—Jesse, Colin, Lily, Colton, and Cooper—who were the light of his life.

He also shared close bonds with his sister Tammy and her husband Donald; his brother Basil and Basil's husband Caleb; his stepfather Robert Brewer; and his niece and nephews Timothy, Dustin, and Debra. Welcoming him home are his mother, Madeline Brewer; father, Chester Hannan; brother, Barry Hannan; and sister, Roseann Hannan.

Outside of work and family life, Terry found peace in nature. In his younger years, he loved hunting and fishing and cherished time outdoors. Whether casting a line or tracking game through the woods, he found solace in these pursuits. He also loved traveling and exploring new places with those closest to him, and treasured every moment spent with his grandchildren.

A hardworking man with a generous heart, Terry will be remembered for the love he gave freely and the legacy he leaves behind in those who knew him best. In keeping with Terry's wishes, there will be no funeral or memorial services. May his memory bring comfort to all who knew him and carry his strength for generations to come.
