“ Danny and children my prayers are with you today and the many days ahead. It was an honor for me to help take care of her and I already miss walking over to the house and talking to Terry. I know that she is now in a better place and no longer in pain. Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel and she will always have a special place in my heart. ”

“ To Sissy, I offer my condolences to you, who was so special to Terry. I can almost understand how losing Terry feels for you. She was your only sister, your older sister and she always tried to look out for you cause she loved you so much. I wish I had the money to come for the funeral but I send my love and my prayers for you. If you need to talk please call anytime. I love you Sissy.

“ My sincere heartfelt condolences to Danny, Darrick, Melisa, Cassie and Stephen. I love you all. How I will miss you Terry. God has taken you to a glorious heaven. On earth, you were a best friend to me. We spent so many many hours together while the bands played and after they finished, it was so much fun to sing along with Danny and Sheldon. The four of us harmonised so well. Forever after when I heard "Seven Bridges Road" it would make me think of our times together. We could talk for hours or just coexist in comfortable silence. We read each others books. Me and you talked of everything under the sun. Your outlook on things was always refreshing to hear; I always got a different view of the world through your eyes. You gave me one of your paintings, my favorite, "The Sailboat". I will always treasure it, just as I will always treasure our friendship and my memories of our times together. In heaven I can imagine you continuing your artistry. When I get there we should go out on the water in "The Sailboat", have a good long talk.
