

Winfred Flowers

April 19, 2020

Winfred Lewis Flowers, 76, of Darlington, passed away on April 19, 2020. Winfred was born in Darlington, SC, a son of the late E.J. Flowers and Mary Jordan Flowers. He was born with a heart for his community, and he followed it all his life. After graduating from St. John's High School in 1962, Winfred demonstrated his dedication to his country by serving in the U.S. Navy. This commitment extended beyond his military service, reflected in his efforts for the county, state, nation, and the larger world. After his service, Winfred earned a degree in Criminal Justice from Florence Darlington Tech and was appointed Chief Magistrate for Darlington County, a position he held for 18 years. Winfred was known for his fairness and kindness in this role, and was beloved for how he treated others on both sides of the bench. He and his wife Loris gained a reputation for humble strength, quietly giving their time and resources where needs arose. Winfred was also known for starting things. One of them was his business Flowers Furniture, where he equipped folks from all over with comfortable recliners and sturdy bedroom suites. In addition to other businesses he invested in, he helped launch a number of public service careers at all levels and was "the man to talk to" for political hopefuls--so long as they could prove their hearts were just. Winfred loved to tell stories, and he loved music, especially Country, Western, Bluegrass, and Gospel. He wanted a place where people could come together to make and enjoy live music. So, in typical Winfred fashion, he built the Music Hall. For similar, but larger, reasons, he helped plant the Friends Mission Church. The name is appropriate, as Winfred truly loved his friends. But there was no one he loved more than his family and his Lord Jesus Christ. Winfred lived to love and serve his God, his community, his family, his friends, and especially his puppy Five Miles.

Winfred was preceded in death by his parents, and brother Eli Flowers and sister Katie Weaver.

Surviving are his loving wife Loris, son Le (Martha) Flowers of Darlington, Grandson Jordan (Niki) Flowers and Great-Granddaughter Sophia of Hartsville, and Granddaughter Julia Flowers of Columbia. Within his extended family are siblings Pearl (Tommy) Jeffords and Donnie Flowers of Darlington, and Eloise Sims of Georgetown. He also leaves behind several much loved nieces and nephews. In addition to biological family, Winfred's "children in Christ" include Jeff Robinson, McIver Suggs, Andy Locklair, and Teresa Weatherford-Gillham.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Friends Mission Church.

The funeral service will be private. The family acknowledges his many friends, are very appreciative of the many acts of kindness and the out-pouring of love. It is with deep regret that his funeral can not be shared with you all. God Bless each of you during this time.

It was an honor and privilege to have known Judge Flowers. I met him when he took over as the magistrate in Darlington. I was a young highway patrolman and set a lot of cases before him. He always treated me and the public fair in any decision he ever made! I was so glad a couple of years ago as I was headed to the beach I saw him opening up the furniture store. Lots of times I would be in Bilo's store and there he was in the "bread" area. He taught me how to tell the date of bread by the twist tie. Brought furniture from him. Went to a country music concert years ago, looked up and there was Winfred and his wife. Sure will miss seeing him. You have some very precious memories to help you at this time. “ Mr Flowers came into my dad's life before I was born. It wasn't until I was a young adult that I was able to know him better. He always had a smile and litl chuckle anytime I talked to him. He was a man-on-the-move. Nothing stopped him for very long. He supported my dad (Jack W Smith) in every business venture he entered. That endeared him to me for life. He helped me not only with furniture, but with good, sound advice, as well. He was such a kind, caring, and giving man. Plus, he was Fun! Fun! Fun!

My last memory of him....Tim Atwood was performing at Cobb's Corner in Lake City. I walked into this tiny hole-in-the-wall place. I walked back to the car as none other than Mr Winfred Flowers pulled up in his limousine! I was impressed he was able to park that thing in such a little parking lot. We had sooo much fun that night. Memories like that (and many others) will stay with me for the rest of my life. He was very special to me. I don't really know how to express it...

I pray for you all. May God give you, and those of us who loved him, peace in light of this tragedy.

“ Dear Winfred, Gone but Not Forgotten. Darlington County has lost a Tradition, A True Southern Gentleman.As You Said, ” It’s Not where U start out from, but where U end up” Bloodlines run Deep but It’s the Friends, We get to chose as Families that count.Only GOD knows from whilst We come and where We goth. You had a Pure and Kind Heart. A Friend to All, A Handshake, Smile or Hug, You always extended to Everyone. Knowing You, throughout Life has been a Blessing. Although sadden to know of Your passing here on Earth.Rejoicing to know I’ll find a friend in Heaven, because You’ll be there, to Welcoming All of Your Darlington County Families and Folks, IN. Rest In Peace, You Deserve Your Place in Glory, Mr. Winfred. 💔

“ Mr. Winfred was the nicest person that I know. I remember when he was a magistrate in Darlington. I had to go see him because I got a speeding ticket. I was so upset. He knew just what to say to calm me down. I lost the ticket and he said I can't do anything without the ticket and he let me go. I will always remember him. R..I P Mr. Winfred. My prayers are with the family. May God give you peace and strength. I will see you again I heaven Mr. Winfred. I know you are rejoicing.

“ TO THE FLOWERS FAMILY, MR WINFRED WAS MORE THAN A FRIEND HE WAS A STATUTE FOR THE PEOPLE WHO LOVED GOSPEL MUSIC AS HE ALLOWED US AS WELL AS OTHER GROUPS TO HAVE THEIR SINGINGS THERE. I'LL NEVER FORGET THE LAST PROGRAM I ATTENDED THERE I WENT OVER TO CONCESSION STAND TO GET A BAG OF POPCORN, HE SAID HE HAD ONE WAITING JUST FOR ME WITHOUT CHARGE. HE WAS A PEOPLE PERSON AND HE WILL BE MISSED BY ALL WHO LOVED HIM. I AM GLAD THAT MY GROUP SOUTHERN REDEEMED MINISTRIES OF FLORENCE WAS ABLE TO BECOME FRIENDS WITH SUCH A REMARKABLE PERSON. ALWAYS KNOW THAT THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU ALL. SINCERELY, SOUTHERN REDEEMED MINISTRIES FLORENCE SC, (GRADY, KATHY, BARBARA)

*Mrs. Flowers, Le, Pearl, and families, Our paths didn't cross real often but I would see Winfred from time to time in the post office or other places around town.
